Erika Malmberg- Skåne, SE
27 year old Student

Brief summary

Currently studying her second year in a programming Yrkesutbildning. She was previously working in agriculture but felt the career path wasn't going anywhere and that she wasn't able to exercise her creativity.
Erika loves the outdoors, arts and crafts and anything creative. When it comes to programming she's mostly interested in frontend and UI/UX.
A year ago she moved back to Sweden from Brisbane to be closer to her family and left behind her then 5 month on and off relationship.

Main goals

Erika is hoping to find someone like-minded in her area to talk programming and design with and maybe even collaborate on a project with. Be it as friends or potentially partners.

Pain points

Dislikes clingy people and guilt-tripping.
